

Clover Leaves

Eau Claire County's 4-H Newsletter

4-H is a community of young people across America who are learning leadership, citizenship, and life skills.

Hello to Eau Claire County 4-Hers!

I am thrilled to be writing this opening to the Clover Leaves as the new 4-H Program Coordinator for Eau Claire County.

I grew up in Potosi, Wisconsin, where I was a member of the Happy Clovers 4-H club from early elementary school through my high school years. I was treasurer, secretary, and president of my club and valued my experience in those leadership positions. I also really enjoyed entering projects in the fair and remember many late nights putting the finishing touches on my fair entries. 4-H taught me so much and allowed me to explore a variety of life skills and interests. I'm excited to dive into the 4-H world again.

I come to the position with a background in biological sciences, youth education, and leadership. I have worked as an environmental educator on a barrier island, as a substitute teacher in Eau Claire middle schools, and have held a variety of leadership positions in organizations in the community. I bring many skills to the table and look forward to expanding the 4-H program to even more young people in our county.

I'm just getting settled in, but I will be contacting your clubs to set up a visit soon! I want to meet you and look forward to working with you all. Please feel free to stop in the Extension office or give me a call at 715-839-4712.

Happy Spring!

DATCP Issues Poultry Testing Waiver due to Antigen Shortage

Release Date: April 23, 2019

Contact: Leeann Duwe, Public Information Officer (608) 224-5005, leeannm.duwe@wi.gov

MADISON – The Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection (DATCP) is waiving certain poultry testing requirements due to a shortage of an antigen used for testing. As a result, poultry owners do not need to test their birds for the pullorum-typhoid disease while the waiver is in effect.

“The occurrence of pullorum-typhoid is rare and it does not cause disease in humans,” says Dr. Darlene Konkle, acting State Veterinarian. “Poultry owners should continue to be vigilant about monitoring their birds and reporting any signs of disease to their veterinarian or DATCP.”

Poultry owners must continue to test their birds for Mycoplasma gallisepticum or ensure the birds or eggs originated from a flock that tested negative for the disease in the calendar year.

The waiver applies until the antigen becomes available to certified testers. There is no timeframe for when the antigen may become available. Currently, only a single manufacturer makes the antigen. Waiver information, updates, and information about Wisconsin’s poultry requirements are available on DATCP’s website at https://datcp.wi.gov/Pages/Programs_Services/PoultryFlockPrograms.aspx.

DATCP’s Division of Animal Health monitors animal health and disease threats, promotes humane treatment of animals, and provides licensing and registration regulation for animals in Wisconsin. or more information about protecting animal health, visit https://datcp.wi.gov/Pages/Programs_Services/AnimalConsumerInformation.aspx.

The 2019 Fair Schedule is also on the website.

Fair Entry Form Workshop

So you've got your fair entry forms. You know where the Fair Book is online. NOW WHAT? If you are new to 4-H, or even not so new, maybe this whole process of moving from 4HOnline to the Fair Entry Forms is a bit confusing.

If that is the case, we have a couple of nights set aside for you. Andy Heren, our Extension Administrative Specialist, will be holding two Fair Entry Forms workshops to help those who have questions about how to fill out those forms. The workshops are Thursday, May 9 and Monday, May 13, at 7:00 PM. Using the fair book and the Fair Entry Form, he will show you how to properly fill it out to avoid mistakes.

Bring your entry forms (if you have them; if not, they'll be here). We will have fair books you can use.

What? You can't make it to either night? Then come to the Extension office between 9:00 am and 4:30 PM and he will be glad to help you.

Friends of the Fair Raffle

Friends of the Fair is thankful for your help in selling raffle tickets to help fund this year's fair.

Eau Claire County Space Campers Return: Mission Accomplished!

Seven Eau Claire County 4-Hers and their fearless leader recently returned from their adventure at Space Camp in Huntsville, AL. While there they all participated in different jobs in a mock space shuttle mission. From what we've seen on Facebooks posts, they had a great experience!

Market Match Program Volunteers Needed

Would you like to see all families eat plenty of fruits and vegetables for a healthy life? YOU can help!

When a farmers' market customer of limited income spends one FoodShare dollar with their FoodShare card, they are given an additional dollar token to spend at the market up to $10 a week. This program is called Market Match.

4-H and JONAH volunteers sell the tokens. This is where you can help!

Due to community support, Market Match has had lots of amazing success:

- Buying fresh, local food is important to FoodShare families. FoodShare patrons spend about $21 per visit, while getting a maximum $10 in direct match.
- Market Match participation is increasing. In 2018, non-duplicated FoodShare patrons using Market Match increased to 432, a 52% increase from 2015 when the program was started. Patrons' visits per season have also increased.

- Market Match provided over $10,000 in direct match to FoodShare patrons this year. Patrons' annually report increased food security despite the lack of subsidized school meals in the summer.
- The majority of Market Match patrons reported eating more fruits and vegetables and saving money on produce.

Help us build a community where all children and families have access to healthy, affordable produce.

Please consider volunteering to help sell tokens at the Eau Claire Downtown Farmers Market each Saturday beginning the first weekend in June until the end of September. We need two volunteers each time slot who will arrive by 8:15AM and work until 12:45. Sign up today or call Andy at the UW-Extension office at 715.839.4712 during regular business hours.

Thanking you for helping us continue the great success of Market Match!

Sincerely,

Market Match Organizing Team

summer STEAM experience

June 16-20, 2019

Campers can choose from the following tracks:

Interior Design

Track Leader: Shelley Pecha

Learn what real interior designers do! Campers will design a living space for their favorite celebrity. While designing this space, you will learn about project programming, the design process, space planning, and how to create a color palette. You will learn about and choose finishes and furniture for your celebrity space. You will hand render your floor plans, compose imagery boards and create a full presentation for your creation. We will also show current student work and interior design projects from around the world.

Classical Drawing Techniques & 'Zine Making

Track Leader: Tamara Brantmeier

In the mornings, students will create 'zines, and the afternoons will be spent learning and practicing historic observational drawing techniques. Drawing is the foundation of creating ideas, and all participants can learn to see and draw like the old masters did. Zines have a long history, from science fiction 'fan-zines' of the 1930's, to riot grrl and punk rock 'zines of the 1990's. We will create 'zines that share a personal story - a self-portrait narrative.

Sculpture Design

Track Leader: Molly Uravitch

Throughout time people have gone to great lengths to alter, decorate, adorn and modify their bodies with fantastical extensions that conceal, distort, transform or celebrate the human form. In this class you will learn a variety of construction methods and work with multiple materials to create a wearable sculpture that interacts with your body. This "Body Extension," could emulate an animal, plant, architectural structure, high fashion and more.

Video Game Design

Track Leader: Joshua Seaver

Level up your skills and get started on realizing the game of your dreams! Learn the end-to-end process of creating video games and the many skills needed to bring them to life using the same techniques and tools as the pros. Begin the week exploring the foundation of game creation—planning the fun—by sketching levels and character designs. Proceed to building a game through adding art, animation, programming logic and sound effects. At week's end, playtest the fun with your class, family and friends to get your game ready for all to the world to play!

Wood is Good

Track Leader: Jerry Johnson

Campers will explore the utility of wood and its properties while learning all about the various species and what makes them different and valuable. They will develop skills in processing techniques and finishing, while creating and building wood products.

Industrial Design

Track Leader: Jennifer Astwood

Have you ever dreamed up an idea for a form and wanted to make something functional? We will be creating and making designs from shoes to candles this summer! For Design Camp, you'll be introduced to the design process through research, sketching, making forms, and making molds of your forms. You will be able to leave camp with renderings of shoes to actual chocolates, soaps, and candles that you created!

3D Modeling in Maya: Robot Design

Track Leader: Nathan Clark

Robots are people too! Well, not really, but animators and video game artists have been giving robots personality for years. In this class we will model, texture, and render memorable, believable robots in 3D space using the same programs used by Pixar and Blizzard Entertainment. We will start with concept sketching and character design, then move quickly into learning how to model and texture your own unique character. By the end of this class you will have an animated friendly character and be able to model almost anything in Maya!

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN
STOUT

The Infinite World of Plastics: Materials, Molds and Processing

Track Leader: Wei Zheng

Learn about the chemical make-up of plastics. With plastics surrounding us in our everyday lives, there are so many different kinds. By testing the various kinds and learning about their processing, you'll determine what can be done with them. Depending on the type of plastic, many can be recycled to make new plastic materials.

Becoming a Teacher in a STEAM Field

Track Leader: Todd Hayden

Have you ever heard the statement, "if you can read this, thank a teacher?" It could go one step further: "If you are interested in STEAM, thank a STEAM teacher!" If you: (1) like one or more STEAM subjects, (2) want to make a difference in the lives of others, and/or (3) want to be part "of where it all begins," then this is the track for you! Campers will develop leadership skills, prepare for college, and explore teaching careers. By the end of this interactive and inspiring class, you will have learned a great deal about yourself and possible career pathways.

Technology Engineering

Track Leaders: Paul Craig and David Ding

This track will focus on the technologies used in future manufacturing such as robotics, automatic inspection and Internet of Things. Campers will learn hands-on skills and have the opportunity to practice with Fanuc Robots and other automation equipment!

Board Game Workshop

Track Leader: Jay Little

Tabletop games have never been more popular. Join award-winning game designer Jay Little for interactive, hands-on activities that teach key design concepts and show how board games are designed and developed – then campers use that knowledge to create their very own board games using our prototype lab!

3D Printing & Jewelry

Track Leader: Vincent Pontillo-Verrastro

Have you heard about or dabbled with 3D printing, and want to make jewelry? Campers will learn the basic foundations of metalworking, 3D modeling, and 3D scanning to create unique, handcrafted adornment with the aid of 3D printing. From rings to bracelets, and necklaces to brooches, each camper will have the opportunity to see how digital fabrication tools are used in creating one-of-a-kind jewelry.

Human Anatomy Exploration

Track Leader: Alexandra Hall

Have you ever wondered what your body is made of, and how all of its parts fit together? In this track, campers will get an inside look at human anatomy, from cells (including their own!), to tissues, to organs, to the entire body. Students will learn microscopy and staining techniques, use UW Stout's extensive collection of histology samples and anatomical models, and even work with specimens and cadavers from our Cadaver Lab Facility. Join Dr. Alexandra Hall, a Biology Lecturer and Physician, for this fascinating exploration into what we are made of!

Home & Family Minutes

Minutes from the Home & Family Committee Meeting on April 22, 2019

Committee Members in Attendance: Ann Biegel, Wendy Duerkop, Nancy Lewis, Jamie Mossige, Nora Tepsa, and Hannah Vollendorf

Minutes from February 25th, 2019 meeting were looked over and accepted as presented.

Foods Revue was discussed. We had 11 members participate. Those present at the event felt the judge (Elizabeth Sippl) did a nice job of talking to members and educating them. Ribbons were given based on the Danish System. The committee will recommend adding to the fair book that Foods Revue (and Clothing Revue) be considered face-to-face judging so the judge can give any ribbon they see fit. We also need to re-write wording for grades 9-12 to clarify that the older kids need to plate the entire meal but only bring serving pieces for the recipe item submitted. Ann noted that we could look at what other counties do for Foods Revue. Changes need to be finalized at the September meeting.

Jamie reported that 3 members came to the initial pj pant or simple skirt clothing workshop. They all have finished their item. No one signed up for the problem-solving workshop. Thank you, Jamie, for offering these workshops.
